3 Nov. 1949

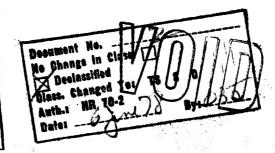

As of 1 November 1949 an eighty-truck convoy was being assembled at the Peiping South Field to carry to Shihchiachuang (114-28, 38-02) yellow fill* from five hundred bombs. This appeared to be the field's main activity.

Comment. "Yellow fill" probably refers to the explosive filler, such as ammonium picrate, picric acid, etc.

and referenced reports concerning recent activities at South Field.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
